

Canadian Western Agribition 2011

BEEF CATTLE DISPLAYS

Application for Live Beef Cattle Displays will be accepted on a first come, first served basis, as space permits. Complete and return entry application, accompanied by full payment to CWA by October 1.

A: BREEDERS DISPLAY AREA:

Display space for live cattle will be sold to a maximum of 30' per exhibitor at a cost of $600.00, per 10 ft space, or 10 x 10 pen. Exhibitor also has the option to purchase one additional adjacent 5' display space for $250.00, but not to exceed the 30' maximum. GST applies on all fees.

No exhibit shall block the view of any other exhibit or exceed space allotted. Solid side panels of display must not exceed 4' in height and 10' in length. Wood chips are supplied, shavings are available for purchase on site. Signage, videos, etc. are permitted (refer to general rules). Cattle in displays must comply with the General Health Regulations of Agribition and may be exhibited in Breed Shows if eligible, and applicable show entry fees paid.

It is strongly recommended that cattle in displays be tied-out at night. Please refer to General Rules.

Set-Up: Display and Animals must be in the barn and in place by 8:00 a.m., Monday, November 21.

Operation: 8:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. daily.

Release Time: 7:00 p.m., Saturday, November 26.

B: EXHIBITOR DISPLAY:

Any exhibitor who has animals entered for show may purchase additional display spaces within the exhibitors stalling area for the sole purpose of promoting livestock genetics. Professional displays are required. Space visible to the public and/or your neighbouring exhibitors must be finished attractively. Spaces 5' in width will be sold to a maximum of 10' per exhibitor at the following rates: $250.00 plus GST for 5' dry and $300.00 plus GST for 5' live animal. Only 1 live animal not entered in any open breed show will be allowed per display. The option for additional live display space will be allocated as space permits. Displays need to be kept clean and free of garbage. Please refer to general rules regarding signage and posters.
