Entries Up for CWA's Spring Steer and Heifer Show

Spring Steer and Heifer Show, a feature attraction of Canadian Western Agribition's (CWA) Spring Ag Show, has experienced a 10% increase in entries according to Shawna Fuchs, CWA's Livestock and Rodeo Manager.

The Spring Steer and Heifer Show entries total 173 animals, 118 youth exhibitors and 30 4-H clubs looking to participate.

"We are pleased to be able to report a substantial increase in entries from one year ago", said Fuchs.

The Spring Ag Show including Spring Steer and Heifer Show, 105th Regina Bull Sale and Trade Show takes place this weekend March 12-14 at Evraz Place, Regina .

The Spring Ag Show will also host Boys, Bulls and Buck$, a junior bull riding event that will be held Friday and Saturday evening at 7 p.m. in the Stockman's Arena. A five man Canadian Professional Bull Riding Challenge will be included in both performances. Tickets are $12 for adults, $5 for children aged 12 & under and are available at Cowtown Western Wear in Regina or at the door.

Information on the Spring Ag Show including the schedule of events can be viewed at www.springagshow.com.
