

AGRIBITION DAILY UPDATE: LADIES AND KIDS FIRST

For Immediate Release

Wednesday, November 23, 2011

Tuesday was a busy day at Agribition. In addition to launching the First Nations Pavilion and hosting comedian Rick Mercer, Agribition kept up a steady pace of livestock shows and competitions.

FIRST LADY CLASSIC:

A Black Angus yearling heifer exhibited by Jennifer Jones of Lloydminster, Saskatchewan won the prestigious honour of First Lady Classic Champion for 2011.

Runner-up Reserve Grand Champion First Lady went to a Red Angus heifer exhibited by Northline Angus from Ardrossan, AB and co-owned by Leonard and Tammy-Nay Tufty.

FIRST LADY FUTURITY

A Black Angus mother and calf exhibited by Soo Line Cattle Co. of Midale, SK took home the intergenerational First Lady Futurity Grand Champion prize. The Reserve Grand Champion in this category went to another Black Angus pair exhibited by Belvin Angus of Innisfail, AB, and co-owned by Duralta Farms.

BOER GOAT

SGBA ANNUAL BOER GOAT SHOW

Both the Grand Champion and Reserve Grand Purebred Does were exhibited by Venture 2 Boer Goats of Steelman, SK.

In the Percentage Doe category, Grand Champion was exhibited by Mosaic Boers of Yorkton, SK and the Reserve Grand Champion by Saw-Whet Acres Edenwold, SK

The Grand Champion Purebred Buck was exhibited by Venture 2 Boer Goats of Steelman, SK while the Reserve Grand Champion honours went to y: Townsend from Val Sylvan Lake, AB.

The Grand Champion Market Kid was exhibited by Rockin R Ranch while the Reserve Grand Champion Market Kid was shown by Saw-Whet Acres of Edenwold, SK.

Detailed results of all competition classes are available online at www.agribition.com

YOUTH SHOW EVENTS

Youth Show events were announced today in the Cloverbud, Junior, Intermediate and Senior Showmanship categories as well as the Junior, Intermediate and Senior Grooming categories. Details are available online at www.agribition.com.