Agribition Honours Presented

Canadian Western Agribition has announced its 2010 Jim Lewthwaite Award winner as well as the recipients of two Chris Sutter Awards. Named for two of the founders of Agribition, the awards are distinctly different but equally important. They recognize exceptional contribution to the growth of Canadian Western Agribition.

The Jim Lewthwaite Award recognizes the efforts of those who promote Canadian Western Agribition internationally and ensure its international presence and prestige is maintained and expanded. This year's Jim Lewthwaite Award was presented at the Wednesday evening International Reception to long-time Agribition supporters Helgi & Candace By in appreciation for their efforts to enhance Agribition's international profile and presence.

The Chris Sutter Award recognizes individuals and organizations who have been builders of Agribition. This year, two Chris Sutter Awards have been presented. Fittingly during the 40 Years of Excellence celebrations, the City of Regina and the Province of Saskatchewan have both been named Chris Sutter Award recipients as committed and valued partners of Canadian Western Agribition since its inception in 1971.

Agribition Sale Results

Speckle Park: The highlight sale was an embryo package from a female owned by Johner Stock Farm, Maidstone, SK, which sold for $6,000 to Barry Ducherer's Wrandada Farms, Neilburg, SK. A bred heifer consigned by River Hill Farms, Neilburg, SK sold for $4,000 to Hugh McNeil, Brantford, ON, who was the purchaser of two other lots in the Speckle Park sale as well. Overall, from 13 lots, four sold to Ontario breeders and an embryo package sold to Australia.

Official Show and Sale Results will be posted at the Canadian Western Agribition website (www.agribition.com).

Canadian Western Agribition, Celebrating 40 Years of Excellence, continues until Saturday, November 27 at Evraz Place, Regina, SK.
