SHOW RULES

1. All entries are subject to the General Rules and Regulations of Canadian Western Agribition. Please refer to these rules and read them carefully.
2. Bulls may be washed, brushed, and clipped in pens, however, no trim chutes permitted in the Stock Exchange. No aerosol or paint.
3. There will be no dry displays including tabletop displays in the Bull Pen Alley area of the barn.
4. Bulls entered in Bull Pen Alley are not eligible to enter any purebred breed association shows.
5. Entries accompanied by fees must be received by October 1.
6. Entry Fee:
  - a. Pen of Three Bulls: $300.00/pen. Non-refundable. GST payable on all fees. Includes $50.00 entry into the People's Choice jackpot, hosted by Saskatchewan Stock Growers Association.
  - b. Pens of Three Bulls stalled in the Yards pen: $100.00/pen. Non-refundable. GST payable on all fees. Includes $50.00 entry into People's Choice and $50.00 show entry. Bulls in yard displays must be in by Monday, November 22.
7. Eligible Animals: All bulls must have been born the property of the exhibitor or breeding unit and must be registered and tattooed. This will be strictly enforced and tattoos will be read by committee members.
  - a. Pens of Three Bulls, born January 1 – April 30, 2021.
  - b. Pens of Three Bulls, born 2020.
8. Classes: After arrival at Agribition, bulls will be designated to classes according to average age in days.
9. Initial Wood chip base will be supplied by Agribition.

10. Exhibitors are required to provide necessary equipment for feeding and watering.
11. Depending on number of entries in the Commercial Cattle Show, all efforts will be made to accommodate all animals in the barn. However, if necessary, some may be housed outside.
12. Agribition stall cards will be provided for all bulls. These cards must be displayed in their entirety.
13. Animals may only be shown once. Halters may be left on junior bulls, but they will be shown loose, however, all long yearling bulls must be haltered at all times and shown with either a ring or a nose lead. For safety reason, long yearling bulls are to be led at all times. Pens will enter and be shown as a group.
14. Each pen will be allotted a show number. Exhibitors must wear this number in the front and back of a show harness while showing. There will be no dry displays allowed in Bull Pen Alley pens.
15. In order to qualify for a breed show, a breed must have a minimum of three pens shows, consisting of any combination (calves or yearlings). Breeds not qualifying for a breed show will be put into an interbreed show.
16. Bulls entered in the Bull Pen Alley Show can be released after the Commercial Cattle Sale, Saturday, November 27.
17. The Supreme Champion will be paraded at the beginning of the sale. Exhibitors must be present to parade their bulls. Any exhibitor not in attendance is subject to CWA disciplinary action. All other bulls entered in the Bull Pen Alley Show are eligible to sell by private treaty.
