Canadian Western Agribition Recognized for Community Involvement

REGINA, SASKATCHEWAN – Canadian Western Agribition (CWA) was a finalist for the Community Involvement Award at the Paragon Awards on Thursday, April 2 at the Delta Hotel in Regina, SK.

The Paragon Awards are presented annually by the Regina and District Chamber of Commerce and recognize Regina businesses who achieve business excellence.

CWA's engagement with a variety of local organizations helped earn a final spot for this prestigious award. Some of the organizations include:

- STARS
- Huddle Up Foundation
- Regina Soccer Association
- University of Regina's Hill School of Business
- Regina Folk Festival
- Regina Multicultural Council

"Agribition is a volunteer-based event itself. It's particularly rewarding to support other volunteer groups and charities around the City for the betterment of our community," says Marty Seymour, CEO.

The Community Involvement Award recognizes an organization that has made an outstanding contribution to the community in the past year by the donation of time, services, or financial support to community activities.

Honourable mention to PCL Construction as the other finalist, and congratulations to St. John Ambulance for winning the Community Involvement Award.
