Canadian Western Agribition tips its hat to Mark Allan

REGINA, SASKATCHEWAN – Canadian Western Agribition (CWA) congratulates Regina Exhibition Association Limited (REAL) CEO, Mark Allan on his retirement announcement.

CWA and REAL have an important partnership and, under Mark, have a shared vision of bringing world-class events to world-class facilities.

"It's pretty obvious by looking at the grounds that Mark will leave the property in a better place than when he found it, and as a leader of any organization, that's the best you can hope for," says CWA CEO, Chris Lane.

CWA is a proud funding partner of the International Trade Centre (ITC) and other capital projects on the property.

"We look forward to helping REAL open the new ITC and working with Mark in the months ahead to build an even stronger relationship between REAL and CWA," says Lane.

From 1987-1991 and again in 2001, Mark was the General Manager of CWA before taking on his role at REAL and CWA thanks him for his leadership of both organizations.

"It's been a while since Mark was a cowboy," says Lane. "We'll have to see if we still have a hat like that around here."
