Individual Donation Makes a Difference at Canadian Western Agribition

REGINA, SASKATCHEWAN – Canadian Western Agribition (CWA) is proud to announce Lilie R Farley has generously donated $50,000 to the organization, which will be designated toward a new scholarship in honour of her late husband William M Farley. The William M Farley Memorial Scholarship is intended to provide financial support to students to pursue post secondary and graduate education.

This is the largest individual donation CWA has received in its history.

“We are sincerely moved by Lilie’s generosity and support.” said Reed Andrew, President of CWA. “The Farley family has always been wonderful supporters of Agribition. We are truly honoured.”

Farley was a long-time supporter of CWA. He was actively involved in the show for 10 years as both a Board of Director and Committee Chair. Farley played a significant role in the development of CWA’s Grain Show back in 1980. This area of the show grew under his guidance including forage and pedigreed seed competitions. In 1994 Farley received CWA’s Chris Sutter Award for exemplary contribution to the development and sustainability of the show.

“My husband devoted his life to farming and had a strong belief in contributing to the agriculture industry.” said Lilie R Farley. “I am happy to be able to give such a gift to Agribition in honour of Bill.”

Students who qualify for the annual scholarship can receive up to $1,500 to be used towards their academic program.
